Baptism of the Lord

The time has come for Jesus to begin his public ministry. Isaiah proclaims, 'Here is my servant... my chosen one in whom my soul delights'. Although John the Baptist is reluctant to baptise Jesus, he is persuaded to do so. Afterwards, Jesus is publicly acknowledged as the beloved Son of God, and we are commanded to listen to him.

Dear Friends,

Today's feast is the Baptism of Jesus Christ. The word "baptism" means "to plunge". For many of us, as babies we had no choice about being "plunged" into baptism – but we were. We were plunged into the life of a Christian, like it or not! As adults, what is our attitude: are we prepared to continually plunge ourselves into the work of the Spirit, or maybe we just go with the flow, or struggle against the plunge? As we bless ourselves with holy (Easter/baptismal) water as we enter the Church, let us reaffirm our "plunge" into the waters of our baptism. Blessings, Lyn.

184 Days to Go till WYD 08

'Days in the Dioceses'

10-14 July- Australia welcomes the world!

For the days leading up to WYD08 the dioceses of Australia and New Zealand will welcome the youth of the world in what is best described as a cultural exchange in the context of faith.

We see "Days in the Dioceses" as an excellent opportunity for the youth of the world to join local communities in prayer and celebration, to experience Australia beyond Sydney, to help renew the Church in the places they visit, as well as to receive Australian hospitality.

Activities of the days, organised by the dioceses, often include:

- * Meaningful encounters with the local Church community;
- * Cultural activities and visits to local sites of interest;
- * Prayer and visits to shrines.

Can you be a Homestay Host in our Parish and provide B & B for two or more pilgrims for those 4 nights? Speak to Marilyn (in the Parish Office - Tuesdays and Thursdays 11am - 2pm).
