

Easter Expressions

(Composer: Kevin Bates)

(USED WITH PERMISSION, WORD OF LIFE INTERNATIONAL LICENCE NO. 2201)

Hear the sounds of death turn inside out. Hear dark days carry hope.
Hear the song of new creation, Hear the Easter people dance about.

Praise to our God who raised up Jesus,
Praise to our God who raised up His world.
Praise to our God whose gift is faithful, Jesus, hope of all the world.

Him, for whom the prophets waited in a stable born,
Tells a message most surprising, love will be my Spirit's only law.
And love will make you poor in spirit, full of mercy, hearts becoming free.
Joy you'll bring to broken moments, suffer gladly on my tree.

Love will be the bond that holds you, love will let you run.
Love's my Spirit of surprises, the hope of Easter in your hearts begun.

Reflection by Dianne Bergant CSA

The boundlessness of God's love is seen in the fact that God loved us even before we were deserving of God's love. In fact, it was God's love that made us able both to receive and to give love in return. Love is of God; love is God. Divine love is constant and trustworthy. How easily we can think this thought or speak these words, yet how difficult, even impossible, it is to comprehend what it means. We can only really recognise love in its many concrete manifestations. Love is patient, kind, and forbearing; it believes, it hopes, it endures. The love of God breaks down the barriers between Gentile and Jew, between slave and free, between the poor and the prosperous, between women and men, between the healthy and the ailing, between young and old.

Embraced by such love we are gradually transformed. We begin to recognise God's love in places we never suspected it would be found. We discover that what we once judged unclean may merely be an unfamiliar openness to God's truth. We discover that our own insistence on legitimate religious practice may really be spiritual elitism. Our eyes are opened to ways we have tried to confine God's love to the conventional boundaries we ourselves have set. As we are drawn into God's love, we eagerly embrace the commandments that help us to live righteous lives. To the extent that we love as universally as God does, we will know that we live in God and that God lives in us.

In her book Meditations for Misfits, Marcia Ford shares the following:

church below the rooftops "One Sunday morning, our pastor interrupted his sermon on hope. 'Those of you who have adult children that you're praying for, children who have left the faith or never embraced the faith and are now living apart from God, I want you to stand,' he said. The rest of us sat and watched as these grieving parents stood. 'Now, those of you who were once wayward children, who in your adult years had strayed far from God and have since returned, I want you to stand.' As dozens of us rose to our feet – yes, of course, I was part of the second group – he said, 'Mums, Dads, there's your hope.'" Connections (September 2005): www.connections-mediaworks.com
