Happy Anniversary

Fiona and Wayne Evans for today
 Lex and Melanie Dignam for 3rd December

First Sunday of Advent Year A

Isaiah invites us to climb the mountain of the Lord so that we may walk in the ways of peace and justice. This call to a change of life challenges us to let go of the things that hinder our response to God's love in our lives. Then we will be refreshed in spirit, and so be alert and ready to meet Christ when he comes, even unexpectedly.

Please pray for those who are ill, especially:
Irene Peacock,
Les Thomas, and Travis Kingston.

Happy Birthday

This season of Advent

The present season is one of particular importance. It is a sacred season. As the Holy Spirit says, it is the time of the Lord's favour, the day of salvation, peace and reconciliation. The patriarchs and prophets longed and prayed and yearned with all their hearts for this time...And the Church has always kept this season in a special way. So, we too must continue to celebrate it fittingly, giving praise and thanks to the eternal Father for the mercy he has shown us in this mystery of the coming of his Only-begotten Son.

St Charles Borromeo (1538-1584)

Dearest Blackheathens!

I was very, very moved and humbled by the love and kindness and thanks you gave to me last Sunday on my last visit for Mass after all these years. I was feeling very sad and thankful at the same time. We have shared some marvellous moments over these years and your friendships and love I will continue to hold in my heart with great joy. I felt a bit lost for words when it came to speaking about my farewell moment there, so wanted to pop you this note to echo what I felt on Sunday. The painting is beautiful and thanks to each of you for your prayers, your most kind gifts and beautiful sentiments expressed in the cards I received. The spread was wonderful, cakes, sponges, hot things, sandwiches etc, etc, etc, - it was a real feast. Thanks to all of you who helped all that happen.

I felt very loved and want you to know that I love you much in return.

Until we catch up again, wherever and however, may our God hold us all gently and guide us well.

Kevin Bates sm

Thank you to the Parish community for your thoughts, prayers and beautiful flowers following the loss of my father. Sr Lyn.

Celebrating the Family

~December 9~

After a wonderful day last year, once again we are offering a Kindy Liturgy during the 9.30am Mass.

You can leave your pre-school children in the Parish Hall from 9.20am onwards where they will be supervised and entertained with some fun Christmas activities.

Your primary school aged children have the opportunity to reflect and discuss the Sunday Scripture Readings at their Children's Liturgy.

A leader will invite the children to go with her to the meeting room for the first part of Mass and we will come together for a Special Family Blessing. Then, we hope you will join us for a Family Picnic at Blackheath Pool Park (BYO lunch), games for all the family and you may decide to take the family for a swim.

If you can assist in any way or have ideas to share, Sr Lyn would love to hear from you! Invite family members, friends and neighbours!
