You have received the Spirit which makes us God's children, and in that Spirit we call God our Father. Alleluia, Alleluia!

Seventeenth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Year C
24th July 2016

Abraham bargains with God in prayer, and God listens. After seeing Jesus at prayer, one of his disciples asks him to teach them to pray, and he gives them the 'Our Father'. He tells them to persist in prayer, as Abraham did. If we ask for the gift of the Holy Spirit, our prayer will always be granted, for this is the gift of God's life within us.

Today we celebrate the feast of
Sts Joachim and Anne, grandparents of Jesus.
(July 26).

To all our grandparents, we thank them for the many gifts of life and faith
they have given us!

PRAYER FOR GRANDPARENTS

Lord Jesus,
you were born of the Virgin Mary,
the daughter of Saints Joachim and Anne.
Look with love on grandparents the world over.
Protect them! They are a source of enrichment for families, for the Church and for all of society.
Support them! As they grow older, may they continue to be for their families, strong pillars of Gospel faith, guardians of noble domestic ideals, living treasuries of sound religious traditions.
Make them teachers of wisdom and courage, that they may pass on to future generations the fruits of their mature human and spiritual experience.

Lord Jesus,
help families and society to value
the presence and roles of grandparents.
May they never be ignored or excluded, but always encounter respect and love.
Help them to live serenely and to feel welcomed in all the years of life which you give them.
Mary, Mother of all the living, keep grandparents constantly in your care, accompany them on their earthly pilgrimage and, by your prayers, grant that all families may one day be reunited in our heavenly homeland, where you await all humanity for the great embrace of life without end. Amen!

This Universal Prayer For Grandparents was composed by His Holiness Pope Benedict XVI in 2008.

~ Blessing ~
God, our heavenly Father, we ask your blessing on
these grandparents
gathered here today.
We recognize their treasured gifts to their families and to the parish family. They are valuable links, between the past and the present, passing on the family stories
and traditions.

May they be surrounded with the love, respect and support of their families as they embrace their unique vocation. May they be strong models for our families and for our parish community.
May they be anchors that provide stability and a firm foundation.

May their witness to their faith guide and strengthen us.
Lord, bless and empower
these grandparents.
Help them share their distinct gifts with their families and all whom they encounter.

Keep them in your love.
Give them
your joy and peace each
day so that they may
always follow
your Son
Jesus. Amen.

POPE FRANCIS—March 11, 2015

"The words of grandparents contain something special for young people. And they know it. The words that my grandmother gave me in writing the day of my priestly ordination I still carry with me, always, in the breviary. And I read them often and they do me good."

Living the Gospel - Ask, Search, Knock.

Jesus says in the gospel, 'Ask, and it will be given to you; search, and you will find;
knock, and the door will be opened to you.'
The actions of asking, searching and knocking are means by which we initiate the encounter with God. If we don't ask, search and knock, how is anyone (including God) to know our needs or know what it is that we are searching for. Particularly in our spiritual lives, it is only through the search and the knocking on the doors of different experiences that we ever come closer to finding answers.
(Liturgyhelp)

In the words of a grandparent:

"I will never forget this cosmic shift as I watched our first born walk from the birthing room with his first born in his arms. What a blessing it is to live this long! Being a grandparent allows me to swim in an ocean of questions that only more reveal the wonder of our creator who calls to us for even greater intimacy and union."
