

Adult Confirmation

There is a growing population of adult Catholics who have never been confirmed.

Confirmation is primarily a Sacrament of Initiation. To become fully initiated through Confirmation is to be more fully immersed in the life and spirit of Jesus. Through the Sacrament of Confirmation, candidates are renewed and strengthened in their baptismal calling to spread the faith by word and action. Candidates are also renewed and strengthened in their baptismal calling to build up the body of Christ in faith and love, in holiness and joy, for they are more intimately bound to the church.

If you are interested or would like to discuss this, please contact Sr Lyn or Michelle Davis or you may be able to pass this information onto someone else, suggesting they contact their local parish.

Bishop Kevin Manning will celebrate Confirmation of Adults at St Patrick's Cathedral on Wednesday, 17th October, 2007 - 7.30pm followed by supper.

Adult Confirmation

There is a growing population of adult Catholics who have never been confirmed.

Confirmation is primarily a Sacrament of Initiation. To become fully initiated through Confirmation is to be more fully immersed in the life and spirit of Jesus. Through the Sacrament of Confirmation, candidates are renewed and strengthened in their baptismal calling to spread the faith by word and action. Candidates are also renewed and strengthened in their baptismal calling to build up the body of Christ in faith and love, in holiness and joy, for they are more intimately bound to the church.

If you are interested or would like to discuss this, please contact Sr Lyn or Michelle Davis or you may be able to pass this information onto someone else, suggesting they contact their local parish.

Bishop Kevin Manning will celebrate Confirmation of Adults at St Patrick's Cathedral on Wednesday, 17th October, 2007 - 7.30pm followed by supper.

Would anyone be interested in a Samsung telephone fax machine? We have one we no longer use in the Parish Office. If so, let Sr Lyn know.

Don't be a slave!'

Every day is a movable feast for me.' This comment was made by a caller to a radio programme discussing the contemporary understanding of 'busyness'. She explained that she had left an unsatisfying job and started her own business, and now had space for work – both paid and voluntary – and for a social life. What a lovely outlook on life, in a society that exalts 'busy-ness' at the expense of simply 'being!' (Tracey)

To enrol in the R.C.I.A. process, please contact Sr Lyn or the Parish Office (4787 8540) with your name and phone number TODAY. There will be an information session where you can ask questions and find out more about the process. Meetings will commence in October 2007.

Would anyone be interested in a Samsung telephone fax machine? We have one we no longer use in the Parish Office. If so, let Sr Lyn know.

Don't be a slave!'

Every day is a movable feast for me.' This comment was made by a caller to a radio programme discussing the contemporary understanding of 'busyness'. She explained that she had left an unsatisfying job and started her own business, and now had space for work – both paid and voluntary – and for a social life. What a lovely outlook on life, in a society that exalts 'busy-ness' at the expense of simply 'being!' (Tracey)

To enrol in the R.C.I.A. process, please contact Sr Lyn or the Parish Office (4787 8540) with your name and phone number TODAY. There will be an information session where you can ask questions and find out more about the process. Meetings will commence in October 2007.

'You cannot be the slave of both God and money.'

Consumerism can be so seductive. Brightly coloured pamphlets in our letterboxes encourage us to buy goods we neither need nor want, though invariably there are items we think may be useful.

Psalm 112 speaks of riches and wealth in the good man's house and it seems to me these riches are not of monetary value. They are the riches of love and acceptance, of dignity and compassion, of patience and honest, kindly communication. All these rise from a relationship with God, which then transfers into our relationships with others.

Lord, may my relationship with you colour my days with all the good things that will enrich those you send into my life. From Daily Prayer online

'You cannot be the slave of both God and money.'

Consumerism can be so seductive. Brightly coloured pamphlets in our letterboxes encourage us to buy goods we neither need nor want, though invariably there are items we think may be useful.

Psalm 112 speaks of riches and wealth in the good man's house and it seems to me these riches are not of monetary value. They are the riches of love and acceptance, of dignity and compassion, of patience and honest, kindly communication. All these rise from a relationship with God, which then transfers into our relationships with others.

Lord, may my relationship with you colour my days with all the good things that will enrich those you send into my life. From Daily Prayer online